SCIENCE

The human genome is made up of tens of thousands of individual genes, which affect our response to various environmental factors. Améo has analyzed over 40 of our essential oils to find out how each affects human genetic health and cellular behavior. This cutting-edge analysis, termed Améo Gene Expression (AGX), is assembled from billions of data points. It allows us to employ essential oils that promote positive gene expression. In other words, AGX provides novel insight about how we can promote improved health and well being through the proper combination and regular consumption of certain Améo Essential Oils.

BENEFITS

With the abundance of processed foods and beverages available today, the digestive system needs help to function optimally. Through Améo Gene Expression (AGX) analysis, we've combined various CERTI-5™ essential oils that work to support normal digestive and intestinal function.
